Mr. Harrison said he did not vote that way. But desired to explain his position. On the adoption of the platform be called for a division and a scaled vote. Both were denied. He intimated plainly his repugnance to gag-law, and stated that he was a Readjuster when the party needed friends. Mr. Fauntleroy made the point of order that Mr. Harrison was injecting bis whole argument into a personal explanation. He was sustained by the President, and Mr.

Harrison had to take his seat. A colored delegate from Alexandria (Wiliams) made a speech encouraging the Readjusters in their course, but expressing gratification that the Republicans were cut loose. [He very erroneously supposed Syphax's resolution had been adopted]. Major N. B. Meade and Scuator Riddlebarger addressed the Convention in brief speeches approving of what had been done.

The regular meeting of Aurora Lodge, No. 116, I. O. O. F., which was held at their hall last night, was of more than ordinary interest by reason of the very large attendance on the part of its own members and representatives from sister lodges of this city as well as the presence of the Worthy District Deputy Grand Master R. S. Valentine, who conducted the ceremonies of installation, assisted by those energetic brothers R. W. Courtney, A. D. Thurman, and R. D. Chesterman. The following officers were duly installed in regular form-viz. James P. Oliver, noble grand; Samuel H. Cottrell, Jr., vice grand; John J. Sullivan, recording secretary; W. J. McDowell, financial secretary; George W. Fuller, treasurer; John H. Rogers, chaplain; Christian Vincent, junior past grand.

BLUES' ENCAMPMENT AT OLD POINT .-The Blues' excursion will start next Monday for Old Point, and promises to be a success. Large numbers of tickets have been sold. The Blues will sell tickets for the hotel as regular boarders or camp tickets-that is, sleep in tents on comfortable army cots and board at the hotel as regular boarders in all other respects and entitled to all privileges. Such a trip is seldom offered to the public at the very low rates of-fered by the Blues, and any one can secure the enjoyment of sailing, fishing, surf-bath-ing, music, moonlight strolls, dancing, &c., &c., at one half of the usual cost.

ONE MORE EXCURSION TO OLD POINT AND NORFOLK.—The Virginia Steamboat Company advertise that they will make an excursion to Old Point and Norfolk next Saturday night, July 10th, with their elegant state-room steamer Louise, leaving at 9 P. M., and arriving here at 10 P. M. Sunday, thus affording our citizens one more opportunity of enjoying a surf-bath, &c.
